

JANUARY IS HUMAN TRAFFICKING AWARENESS MONTH

#NotOnOurIslands

Ho'ōla Nā Pua is challenging members of our community to collectively raise their voices, take action, and build awareness about child sex trafficking.

Be part of our month-long effort to turn bring awareness to the issue in our islands by participating in just one small action each day.

SUNDAY

MONDAY

TUESDAY

WEDNESDAY

THURSDAY

FRIDAY

SATURDAY

hoolanapua.org  facebook.com/hoolanapua   @hoolanapua

Ho'ōla Nā Pua is committed to providing a home designed to meet the unique needs of underage female sex trafficking victims through the utilization of individualized, comprehensive, and restorative therapies.

1

Replace your social media profile and/or cover picture: Use our awareness image for the month with hashtag #NotOnOurIslands

2

Follow us on social media: Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest, Instagram, Google+

3

Talk to your keiki about domestic violence: Teach them about healthy relationships. Check out loveisrespect.org for resources.

4

Volunteer: Give your time to Ho'ōla Na Pua. Get started by visiting hoolanapua.org

5

Become a $1000 from 1000 sustaining donor: Help provide us with the sustaining funds needed to build and maintain a safe home.

6

Learn the facts: Educate yourself at hoolanapua.org/get-educated

7

Share the facts: Share a quote or statistic via social media with the hashtag #NotOnOurIslands

8

Organize an event: Raise awareness and funds for Ho'ōla Nā Pua via a car wash, yoga class, or a multitude of other ways.

9

Watch & share this video: Understand child sex trafficking in our islands

10

Read our Child Sex Trafficking FAQ

11

National Human Trafficking Awareness Day: Wear blue, the international color for raising awareness of human trafficking.

12

Post a Human Trafficking Awareness Month Facebook update: Check Facebook for suggested messages and quotes to share on your page.

13

Ask 5 friends to each make a one-time donation to Ho'ōla Nā Pua —any amount makes a difference!

14

Tweet this statistic: U.S. Dept. of Justice estimates 100,000-300,000 children become sex trafficking victims in the U.S. each year.

15

Read a book: Walking Prey, Girls Like Us, and Renting Lacy are just a few suggestions

16

Subscribe to our newsletter: Be the first to hear about news, events, fundraisers, and more. Get on board now!

17

Join our legislation team: Bring justice to victims and support pending legislation.

18

Write to your Senator or congressman: Ask that they take issues of child sex trafficking seriously.

19

Skip your morning Starbucks visit for the week: Donate that money to Ho'ōla Nā Pua instead - every dollar counts!

20

Book a Smart Courage presentation: Educate teenage students about the dangers of sex trafficking.

21

Read the 4 Common Myths of Prostitution & Sex Trafficking

22

Volunteer: Central or Leeward Oahu residents, attend Ho'ōla Nā Pua outreach training, 6 p.m. at Inspire on 94-877 Lumiaina St. in Waipahu

23

Register to attend an upcoming Ho'ōla Nā Pua event

24

Join our 2015 Hapalua Half Marathon team: Runners, joggers, and walkers are welcome! Register now.

25

Take the Defender's pledge: We challenge the men of Hawai'i to take action against child sexual exploitation.

26

Request a speaker: We're available for your group or organization's educational training event.

27

Watch a documentary: Sex + Money and Nefarious

28

Share this on Facebook: Young girls in Hawai'i are ordered online, purchased in massage parlors, and put out on the street to generate business for sex traffickers. I support Ho'ōla Nā Pua's mission to rescue and restore these victims!

29

Play golf: Register a team for our inaugural charity golf tournament on April 27.

30

Write a review about us: Take 2 minutes to write a review at GreatNonprofits.

31

DON'T FORGET: You can make child sex trafficking awareness 365 days long!