

HO'OLA NĀ PUA

Online Webinars October 2020

Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children in Hawaii: Prevent, Identify, Respond

Sadly, it often takes something unthinkable happening to a child for communities to realize how widespread and pervasive sex trafficking is in Hawai'i. We all hope "not on our island," "not in our school," and "not to my child." By the end of this webinar, you will be armed with current, comprehensive, and local information to combat Commercial Sexual Exploitation of the Children in your community!

Tuesday, October 6, 2:00pm-3:30pm

Thursday, October 22, 6:00pm-7:30pm

Online Safety Tips for Parents, Caregivers, and Other Good Adults

The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children received 4,000,000 child exploitation cyber tips in April 2020, 4X the number received in April 2019! 1 in 3 children who have been sex trafficked in Hawaii were recruited online. This webinar will equip you to keep your keiki safe online.

Tuesday, October 13, 2:00pm-3:30pm

Thursday, October 29, 6:00pm-7:30pm

Guy Talk: Fight Sex Trafficking

Guys, let's talk about sex trafficking. The issue impacts us, our sons, our daughters, our wives/girlfriends, and our friends in so many ways that we don't like to think or talk about. We may even be contributing to the problem without realizing it! This webinar is a shame-free zone that will open those conversations and equip us to use our roles to fight sex trafficking.

Thursday, October 1, 6:00pm-7:30pm

Tuesday, October 20, 2:00pm-3:30pm

Trauma Informed Response to Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children

Trauma both contributes to and is a result of sex trafficking. Understanding that is essential to preventing and responding to sex trafficking. This webinar will dive into trauma, how it happens, what it looks like, how it contributes to sex trafficking, what sex trafficking trauma looks like, and how to respond appropriately.

Thursday, October 15, 6:00pm-7:30pm

Tuesday, November 3, 2:00pm-3:30pm

Starting the CSEC Convo with Young Keiki (With guest Elizabeth Lim - mom, author, and founder of Scream, Run, Tell.)

Talking to your keiki about sexual exploitation is difficult! The topic alone is scary: the impact, the trauma, considering their innocence. As parents, we can be overwhelmed trying to find the right time and the right words. This webinar will address all of these concerns and equip you with the knowledge and tools to confidently and proactively engage your keiki with age appropriate, trauma-informed, innocence-protecting methods to get started today.

Thursday, October 8, 6:00pm-7:30pm

Tuesday, October 27, 2:00pm-3:30pm